The members of the Rose Hill Social club held an interesting session in their rooms yesterday afternoon. President M. J. Smith made an address and songs were sung by Edward Crosby, J. Leonard, W. H. Lynch and William J. Erwin, Recitations were given by Thomas Woods and J. H. Tierney. The club is the oldest social organization in the city and at times num-bered among its members young men who have since won their way to important positions in the affairs of the country. A lecture on ex-members of the club would make an interesting subject for some of the base ball cranks of twenty years ago An epidemic has broken out among chickens which is fast devastating some splendid specimens of poultry all over town. The victims drop off without a moment's warning and owners are puzzled to know the cause of the strange disease. One woman in the south end of the city lost a whole brood the other day, all throwing up the sponge in the same hour Ducks, too, are subject to the disease and drop off as suddenly as though they had stepped on an electric battery. Some peo-ple think that the fowle devour the elm eaf beetle with fatal results. If this be true the beetle will be a welcome guest to a majority of the residents of Waterbury, for there is nothing in the world calculated to breed disturbance among neighbors as a yard full of chickens, and if the beetle can do something towards ridding the com-munity of this nuisance we should all hail

DURANT ON TRIAL. Alleged Perpetrator of the Church Mur-SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.-Interest in the horrible Emanuel church murders, which shocked the whole world, was revived today when the trial of Theodore Durant commenced.

Durant and his attorneys say that an the horse reached the stable he showed no signs of being abused. He was the most valuable animal in Mr McMahon's stable.

Several Hurt at a Fire. GUTTENBERG, N. J., July 22.—Three ouses and a hotel owned by Mrs. Caroine Asmus were badly damaged by fire and the occupants had a narrow escape for their lives. At it was several were injured Mrs. Kull, wife of Frederick Kull, a baker, who occupied one of the houses, leaped from a window to escape the flames and was probably fatally injured. One of Kull's sons, who also jumped from a window, was also very seriously injured, it is thought internally. A little girl who was staying with Mrs. Asmus was also hurt.

John Dwyer was arrested by Officer Allen yesterday morning on North Leonard street. The officer said the man was drunk and had jumped onto an inoffensive citizen. The latter knocked him down and Dwyer was making for him again when the officer arrested him. Dwyer denied hav-ing been drunk and said that he and Frank Burke had an altercation over a letter and that he struck Burke twice. Judge Cowell fined him $1 and costs for drunkenness and su pended judgment for assault. This use in bringing complaints.

When the case of Vincenzo Cierle, charged with assault on Mrs Mary Rose, was called Attorney Durant, who appeared for the accused, received a sharp reprimand from Prosecuting Attorney Webster. Cierle went to his boarding house Saturday night and had a dispute with Mrs Rose over a board bill. He cut the woman three times on the left arm, with which she was guarding herself. Officer McCarthy arrived quickly on the scene and arrested him. Attorney Durant said that it was a peculiar way of bringing a case and wanted it adjourned as he had had no time to consult his client. Attor-ney Webster said there was nothing pecuhar about it, the complaint was regularly made out, the officers had done their full duty and he did not like such statemen as Attorney Durant made, repeated in court. It was agreed that the case should go over until to-morrow, but Officer McCarthy was put on the stand to testify as to the cuts in order to fix the bond. At torney Durant' remarked that the cuts could be made with finger nails. Again Attorney Webster rebuked him saying that there was no use in spending time with such talk. The bonds were fixed a Saturday afternoon James Gorman, em loyed at the Farrell foundry, was struck n the head with a sixteen pound ham Carbolic Acid By Mistake For Gin.

Mrs iordano fell to the floor a corpse, and the shots that did not go through her went through both legs of the 4 months old it fant she held in her arms. Giordano, fearing that the babe would be killed in the fall, sprang forward to clasp it, and the assassin then fired again The buckshot entered the groin and leg of her mother fall, ran forward and received a portion of the load of buckshot that struck her father. The shot entered her abdomen, literally tearing it to pieces. At the same time little Nicolina fell to the floor, wounded through the head.

The assassin, Joe Noska, did not move from the spot, but when he saw Benditto
